CORAM : Smt. V. A. Naik, J.
DATED : February 28, 2007.

Civil Application No. 1057 of 2007

By this civil application, the applicant/ respondent no.2 seeks permission to withdraw the amount of Rs. 20,000/- for her marriage expenses. The marriage invitation card is annexed to the civil application. This Court had, by the order dated 29th September, 2003, granted liberty to the respondents to withdraw money out of the invested amount in case of marriage or any other eventuality.

In view of this, the respondent no.2 is permitted to withdraw the amount of Rs. 20,000/- for her marriage expenses.

Civil application is allowed and disposed of accordingly.

Civil Application No. 6146/2006

By this civil application, the applicant/ respondent no. 3 seeks to withdraw an amount of

Rs. 20,000/- deposited by the appellant in this Court.

Though it is stated in the application that the respondent no.3 has annexed a xerox copy of the College Leaving Certificate, the same has not been annexed to the application. However, a copy thereof was produced before the Court for the purpose of showing that the respondent no.3 was taking education. It appears from the certificate that the respondent no.3 has secured College Leaving Certificate of Junior College in the year 2004 itself. Since the respondent no.3 has recently attained majority, it would be necessary in the interest of justice to keep the amount of Rs. 20,000/- falling to the share of the respondent no.3, in a fixed deposit account for further period of three years from today.

Civil application is disposed of on the aforesaid term.
